

The Man in the Mirror Group Leader Job Description

Major Responsibilities

To express your commitment as a Man in the Mirror group leader, you must accept each of the following responsibilities.

Personal Holiness

I agree to endeavor with the Spirit's help to live in a way that recommends my message. If at any time I find myself not walking rightly with my God I agree to discuss this with a pastor or leader in my church or by email with Pat Morley or his designated coordinator.

Disciple-Making

My group is my personal ministry. I agree to take a primarily disciple-making approach with the men in my group (versus fellowship, current events, counseling). I will think through and prepare a written purpose statement for the men at my table. I will seek to lead every man to a personal faith in Jesus Christ and a maturing relationship with and knowledge of Him.

Prayer

I agree to pray for each man weekly (his needs, work, family life, walk with Jesus, personal salvation, spiritual growth). Tell your men you pray for them.

Telephone

I agree to call or have someone call each of my men weekly to remind them of the meeting and to let them know we care about them.

Goals

I agree to build the following five spiritual disciplines into my life, not out of duty, but to grow in the gospel of grace. On the strength of my example I will challenge, encourage, and motivate my men to do the same:

- Consistent Quiet Time (Matthew 14:23, Joshua 1:8)
- Organized Bible Study (Proverbs 4:23, Romans 12:2, 2 Timothy 3:16-17)
- Active Church Involvement (Hebrews 10:24-25)
- Accountable Relationships (Galatians 6:1-2, James 5:16)
- Personal Ministry (Ephesians 2:10, 2 Timothy 2:2, 1 Peter 4:10-11)

Building Relationships

I agree to visit one-on-one with each man at least annually over breakfast, lunch, or coffee.

Leadership Development:

I agree to identify potential spiritual leaders from my table (FAT - faithful, available, teachable) and to invest in building them for spiritual service, appointing the most promising as an Assistant Leader (to lead discussion in your absence; possibly become a leader in future).

Punctuality

I agree to begin and end my group at the advertised times.

Visitors

I agree to be sensitive and help make "new men" feel cared about (James 2:1-4).

Conclusion

The question on the final exam will be, "Were you faithful?"

To be faithful...

1. Name your men before Christ
2. Measure your men by the plumb line of Christ
3. Love your men by the example of Christ
4. Grow your men by the pattern set by Christ
5. Involve your men in the service of Christ

Leadership is a privilege and a responsibility for which God holds those who accept it accountable. It has a price which I agree to pay. I hereby agree to the terms of this job description for the current calendar year. If for any reason I determine my commitment has changed I agree to notify a pastor or leader in my church, or Pat Morley or his designated coordinator immediately (James 3:1).
